

Closing Trust Accounts:

The Commission recommends that all brokers inform the Iowa Real Estate Commission, in writing, whenever they close a real estate trust account. The written notification should include the following:

- the name of the broker or firm;
- the account number;
- the name of the bank;
- the date on which the account was or will be closed;
- the date of the last transaction (bank statement);
- proof that interest was remitted to the state (bank statement);
- and any other information or documentation requested by the Commission.
